Bhutan is a country which has got many unique identities. Gho and kira is our national dress. There are some more national identities which indicates Bhutanese are loyal and obedient. We are blessed with extra ordinary monarchs and leaders. Our government provides us with free health and education. Those identities and cultures were implemented by Zhabdrung Ngawang Namgyel who came to Bhutan in 1616. The Lhuru that we play is also a part of our culture. Bhutanese follows the religion called Buddhism. Each and every house hold has altar at home to pray everyday. Bhutan preserves nature and is known for being Carbon Negative Country in the world. That's why Bhutan is always at the top.
